Redefining Identity

About Us

FABRO Leather Industries is a premium quality seat cover manufacturer for automobile industry. We design, manufacture and distribute innovative and high-quality seat cover for original equipment manufacturer (OEM), pre-delivery inspection centre (PDI) and replacement equipment manufacturer (REM) market segments.

Our experienced experts design and manufacture the next-generation seat cover from the highest quality automotive-grade materials to perfectly fit on the vehicles.

Our state-of-the-art manufacturing facility is equipped with the most advanced digitalization, lamination, cutting and stitching engineering technology. We have the best craftsmanship in the industry with creative and innovative design capabilities.

Quality is always our top priority. We have a comprehensive quality assurance process to ensure that each and every product meet and exceed our customer expectation.

Our car seat cover will protect the original upholstery, make the driving experience more luxurious and simply make your interior more aesthetically pleasing.

To be the world leader of next-generation luxury lifestyle with innovative ideas and premium quality products.

Vision Statement

The image shows a close-up of a dark leather surface with the word "Fabrol" embossed in a large, stylized, blocky font. The leather has a fine, perforated texture. A single white feather is lying on the leather in the lower-left quadrant of the image.
